On April 4, 2011, the Maryland State Board of Physicians (the "Board") summarily suspended the medical license of John Douglas Paulson, M.D. On June 23, 2011, the Board and Dr. Paulson entered into a Consent Order wherein the summary suspension of Dr. Paulson's license was terminated and his license was suspended for a minimum period of six (6) months with certain terms and conditions. On August 13, 2012, the Board issued an Order Terminating Suspension and Imposing Probation for a minimum period of five (5) years with certain terms and conditions.¹ On August 9, 2017, Dr. Paulson petitioned for termination of the probationary status of his license.
